Saturday, March 4 - Departure

Depart from Washington Dulles International Airport on our transatlantic flight.

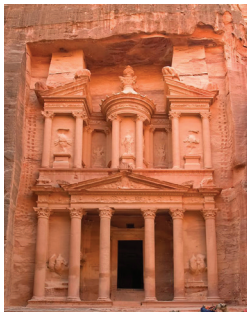

Sunday, March 5 – Amman, Jordan

After changing planes in Vienna, Austria, arrive at Amman's Queen Alia International Airport. Once luggage has been claimed, we will take a short tour of Amman and transfer to the Dead Sea. We will eat and lodge at Kempinski Dead Sea Hotel.

Monday, March 6 – Jordan

We will visit Mount Nebo, from which God showed Moses Canaan, the Promised Land. Next, we visit the site where John the Baptist was beheaded. Dinner and lodging will be at the Kempinski Dead Sea Hotel.

Tuesday, March 7 – Petra

We begin with a drive to Petra. Our first stop is at Madaba to see the mosaic floor from the 6th century, showing a map of the Holy Land as Christian pilgrims knew it. Next, we tour Petra where you can travel in a horse-drawn carriage or on foot through the deep and narrow passages which occurred naturally, carved years ago by erosion. The Treasury finally appears magnificently in view after emerging from what seems like a hundred turns in the ravine. Overnight will be at the Movenpick Resort Petra.

Wednesday, March 8 – Mitzpe Ramon

We begin our day with a drive to the Arava Border, crossing over Eilat, and on to the Tabernacle at Timna Park. Here we will find a life-size model of the tabernacle God instructed to be built in the Book of Exodus. Next, we travel to Mitzpe Ramon, a town in the Negev Desert in southern Israel. Dinner and overnight will be at the Beresheet Hotel in Mitzpe Ramon.

Thursday, March 9 – Jericho

Today, we visit Masada, Herod the Great's desert palace on an isolated rock plateau overlooking the Dead Sea. Lunch will be at Papa Mishel in Masada. We will visit the Springs of Ein Gedi where David and his men were hiding from King Saul and David cut the hem of Saul's robe when he entered into the cave. From there we will travel to Qumran where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found. We will end our day in Tiberias for dinner and lodging at the Sophia Hotel.

Friday, March 10 – Northern Galilee

The day will begin with a drive to Caesarea Philippi (Banias Spring) where Peter confessed, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God" (Matthew 16:16). Next, we will drive up to Mount Bental at the Lebanon/Syria border for a lookout over the Road to Damascus from the Golan Heights. We will have lunch and visit Nazareth Village, a re-creation of a working farm and Galilean village as it may have been 2,000 years ago. It's truly a window into the life of Jesus, Nazareth's most famous citizen. Then, we will travel on to Magdala, the home of Mary Magdalene. Dinner and lodging will be at the Sofia Hotel.

Saturday, March 11 – Galilee

We begin the day with a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee. We will then visit the Jesus Boat, an ancient boat believed to be from Jesus' time and discovered in the dry lakebed of The Sea of Galilee in 1986. From there we go to the Mount of Beatitudes. Lunch will be at Saint Peter's Restaurant and then to the village of Capernaum, the hometown of Jesus. Then we visit Bethsaida, the hometown of Jesus' disciples: Phillip, Peter, and Andrew. Following will be a special moment for all participants: baptism in the Jordan River. Dinner and overnight will be at the Sophia Hotel.

Sunday, March 12 – Caesarea Maritima/Galilee

It's on to the Jezreel Valley to Tel Megiddo, the inspiration for James Michener's "The Source." Archaeological digs reveal over 20 layers of civilization, including fortifications of King Solomon and the water tunnel of King Ahab. Megiddo provides a magnificent view of the fertile Jezreel Valley, prophesied site of Armageddon, located at the crossroads of the ancient Via Maris. We will then have a viewpoint of Tel Yizreel before visiting the Muhraka Monastery, where Elijah the prophet is believed to have resided. We will then drive to the Roman port city built by Herod the Great, Caesarea Maritima, considered to be the point from which the gospel left the shores of Israel for the Gentile world, and the city where Peter showed Cornelius the way of salvation. Dinner and lodging will be in Jerusalem at the Inbal Hotel.

Monday, March 13 – Jerusalem

This morning, we drive to the City of David, where we begin by watching a 3D movie. The City of David is now an archaeological park and one of the most intensely excavated sites in the area. Next, we view the entrance to Warren Shaft, the main source of water to Jerusalem. Following, is Hezekiah's Tunnel, a 1,750-foot tunnel carved during the reign of Hezekiah to bring water from one side of the city to the other. This is considered one of the greatest works of water-engineering technology in the pre-Classical period. We will look out from the Mount of Olives, then walk down to visit Dominus Flevit. Afterward, we travel to St. Peter in Gallicantu – the House of Caiaphas. We then visit the Upper Room referenced in the Book of Acts and the Zion Gate, one of the eight gates in the walls of the old city of Jerusalem.

Following is the Garden of Gethsemane where we will visit the private garden – Garden of the Virgin Mary. We end our day with the Yad Vashem Holocaust Museum, Israel's memorial to the victims of the Holocaust. Dinner and lodging will be at the Inbal Hotel.

Tuesday, March 14 – Jerusalem

Today, we will take a tour of the Jewish Quarter. Next, we view the Southern Wall Excavations and the Western Wall. Our next stop will be the Wohl Museum of Archeology. It preserves six (6) compound

houses from the Second Temple era. They are the largest and most significant Second Temple ruins that have ever been discovered in Jerusalem. Following are Western Wall tunnels, which provide a glimpse of the remnants of Jerusalem from the days of the Second Temple, approximately 2,000 years ago. We visit the beautiful Church of St. Anne with its amazing acoustics, and walk along the Via Dolorosa to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Dinner and lodging will be at the Inbal Hotel.

Wednesday, March 15 – Bethlehem

We begin our day by visiting Yad Vashem – The World Holocaust Remembrance Center. Following will be a tour of Bethlehem, including the Church of the Nativity and the Shepherd's Field. Lunch will be at the Grotto in Bethlehem. Then, we return to Jerusalem and end our day at the Garden Tomb where we will partake in Communion.

Thursday, March 16 – Depart for U.S.A.

We depart for home today from what will truly be the journey of a lifetime!

Travel Arrangements Provided by:

Tour Features and Conditions:

Please read all Tour Features and Conditions carefully. Payment of tour deposit constitutes acceptance of these conditions.

Air Transportation: Air transportation is restricted to the services of any IATA carrier in economy class based on a nonrefundable fare. A traveler is responsible to provide his/her name as it appears on his/her passport. Ticketing will be made 30-45 days prior to departure, after which there will be a charge for name corrections. Tour prices include current airline taxes and fuel surcharges, which are subject to change until ticketed. Tour participants are responsible for any increase in airline taxes or fuel surcharges imposed by the airline.

Seat Assignments: Group seats are available approximately 30 days prior to departure and are assigned at the airline's discretion. Please advise your travel consultant of any special seating needs due to health or mobility constraints. We will be unable to accommodate last minute seat requests.

Accommodations: The arrangements are based on two or more people sharing a room, as accommodations are listed in a similar itinerary. Single rooms are subject to availability at an additional charge. If a passenger does not have a roommate, the passenger is responsible for the additional charge.

Meals: In-flight meals and snacks are served according to airline policy. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner will be provided daily. Special dietary restrictions may not be able to be accommodated.

Transfers and Baggage: Group transfers between airports and hotels upon arrival and departure from the Washington Dulles International Airport are included in the tour price, including handling of one medium-sized suitcase per person, not exceeding 62 dimensional inches (length plus width plus height) or weighing more than a maximum of 50 pounds. Due to limited luggage storage space on motor coaches, it is important that each person bring only ONE piece of checked baggage. In addition, a flight bag or overnight case may be taken, which must be handled by the passenger at all times. Baggage allowance is subject to change according to airline policies.

Sightseeing and Entrance Fees: Such fees are included in the Rates section.

Tips and Taxes: Service charges and taxes on accommodations are included. Tips to guides, drivers, and hotel staff are included. Tips for personal services are not included.

Not included: Passport fee, travel protection, checked baggage fee, and expenses of a purely personal nature. Transportation from your home to Washington Dulles International Airport and vice versa is not included.

Deposit and Payment: Reservations can be secured with a deposit payment of $1,000 by October 26, 2022. The final payment is due December 14, 2022.

Genesis Boutique Cancellation Conditions: The cancellation conditions outlined below apply to all passengers who initiate a cancellation. Should circumstances require that the passenger needs to cancel, a written notice of cancellation must be received by Genesis Boutique Travel at least 100 days prior to departure to secure any refund of deposit funds.

- After the date of deposit of October 26, 2022 up to and including December 14, 2022, a full deposit (which is $1000 per person) plus any unrecoverable fees will apply including a $250 cancellation fee per person.
- After December 14, 2022, there will be no refund.
- Cancellation policies apply when a cancellation occurs for any reason. There is no refund for any unused services or portion of the tour package.

Protect Your Investments: For optional travel insurance, passengers should contact their own personal insurance agent. COVID 19 medical insurance is required prior to departure.

Passport, Visa, and Health Requirements: A valid passport is required. If you do not have a passport, you should apply for one immediately. Information on obtaining or renewing a U.S. passport can be found at <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/passports.html>. If you currently have a passport, please verify that it is valid until September 17, 2023. A visa for Israel is not required for U.S. citizens. A group visa for Jordan will be obtained at no extra charge, provided that a copy of the photo page of your passport is received by December 14, 2022. Non-U.S. citizens are responsible to fulfill entry requirements for countries to be visited by contacting the appropriate consulates. No vaccinations are required at this time, but please check with your physician for his/her recommendation as well as with the CDC for updated guidelines prior to travel.

Rates and Fares Information: The quoted tour price is based on the current rate of exchange. Fluctuation in the foreign exchange rate could result in price increases.

Deviations: Any individual making a change in travel arrangements apart from this group program will be fully responsible for additional charges, cancellation fees, and their own travel arrangements. Since this is a group fare, any deviations must be arranged directly between you and the Genesis agent.

Tour Operator Itinerary Changes: The itinerary as outlined is an indication of sequence and sites to be included in the tour program. However, the tour operator reserves the right to alter or change the itinerary and/or the sites included, should it be deemed necessary due to local conditions, time restrictions, or other circumstances.

Traveler Safety: In the ever-changing world situation, Genesis Boutique Travel recommends personal monitoring of news about your destination. For the latest country information from the U.S. Dept. of State, please visit: <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>.

Disabilities: Guests with disabilities or dietary restrictions should inquire about options prior to registration to accommodate their needs.

Responsibility

Genesis Boutique Travel and their employees, agents, officers, shareholders, and staff act only as independent third parties to connect customers with the various companies whose accommodations are utilized. Genesis Boutique Travel, its employees, agents, officers, shareholders, and staff assume no responsibility or liability in connection with the services of any train, vessel, carriage, automobile, airplane, or other conveyance, anticipated to be used or which is used, either wholly or in part, in any travels. Genesis Boutique Travel, its employees, agents, officers, shareholders, and staff are not and will not be responsible, and the passenger fully releases Genesis Boutique Travel, its employees, agents, officers, shareholders, and staff for and from any act, error, or omission, or any resulting expense or any injury to person or property (including death), other loss, accident, or any delays which may be occasioned, by reason of defect in any vehicle or through neglect or default of any company or people engaged in the conveying of passengers, including but not limited to any steamer, airplane services, or that of any other conveyance, or through any sickness, accident, weather, strikes, war, quarantine, or other causes, and all such losses, injuries, and expenses must be and will be solely the responsibility of the passenger to handle. Prices and schedules appearing in this brochure are based on current schedules and tariff rates and are subject to change without notice. The tour operator reserves the right to modify the itinerary where deemed necessary or caused by changes in airline or other schedules. The airlines and/or other transportation companies concerned are not to be held responsible for any act, omission, or event during the time that passengers are not aboard their plane or conveyance. The passenger contract in use by the airlines concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and the purchaser of tours and/or the passenger.
